 a book that, fitly

Memorial Donation

Memorial gifts to the DuBois Public Library support the purchase of new books and materials for our collection. A gift to the book collection is a lasting remembrance of your loved one and will be shared and cared for by many community members. Your gift can be personalized to reflect the interests, occupation, hobbies, or causes of your loved one or a member organization.

For a contribution of $15.00 or more, the library will order an appropriate book. Acknowledgment of this contribution will be made by mail to anyone you designate. A book plate, noting your name and the name of the remembered person will be placed in the front of each book purchased with your memorial donation. Additionally, note of donors names will be made in the Courier Express Newspaper. Gifts of less than $15.00 will be added to the Memorial Book Fund, but will not receive a book plate in a book.

Memorial donations may be directed to the Memorial Book Fund, or the library staff will be glad to select titles from a subject area of importance to the honoree. Please remember, not all titles are suitable for our library, as our space is at a premium. Therefore, the library reserves the right to approve any book or subject suggestions.

Honor Donation

What to give someone who has everything? Mark a birthday, anniversary, or milestone event. A tribute gift may also be made by an individual or organization in honor of a special person. These gifts also may reflect the cause or personality of the organization or person. These gifts will receive a bookplate, however they will not be listed in the newspaper.

*In Honor and Remembrance...
